Republican And Democratic Leaders Predict They Will Carry Pennsylvania Tuesday

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—With the presidential election only 24 hours away, both Democratic and Republican leaders confidently predicted victory tomorrow in Pennsylvania. Thus the outcome is considered uncertain.

The prize is the big and important bloc of 42 electoral votes. And that these Keystone State votes are regarded as important cannot be ignored.

Bh. Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic standard-bearer, and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the GOP nominee, whistle-stopped through Pennsylvania in the closing weeks of their campaigns personally plugging for support.

In a close election, Pennsylvania, normally a Republican state, could be a deciding factor—though the Democrats have proved, in 1932 and in 1948, that they could win nationally without Keystone State support.

FDR Won 3 Times

The late Franklin D. Roosevelt lost the state to Herbert Hoover in 1932 but won the presidency. FDR captured Pennsylvania's electoral votes in '36, '40 and '44 but President Truman lost them four years ago.

The number of electoral votes this year was reduced by three, to 32, because of population shifts based on the 1950 census. However, the big bloc is surpassed only by New York's 45.

Intensive get-out-the-vote drives by all sorts of organizations throughout the commonwealth virtually have assured a large turnout at the polls during the 13 hours they are open from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m.

A record number of Pennsylvanians are qualified to vote, another hint the total vote cast will be high. Registration lists carry 5,340,936 names and the Elections Bureau believes some 80 per cent of those enrolled may cast ballots.

Tops Early Record

If the turnout reaches that, the vote would top the state's previous high presidential total, 4,138,426 in 1936. The best previous registration total was recorded 12 years ago.

The registration figures give an edge of 1,091,000 to the GOP in line with the traditional Republican leanings of the state. There are 3,128,773 Republicans registered to 2,137,490 Democrats and 74,673 listed as having no party or affiliated with minor parties.

Extended forecasts indicate the weather will be cool and clear with moderate temperatures for the balloting.

In all but four presidential elections since 1860 Pennsylvania has ended up in the Republican column. The four exceptions were in 1912 when the Keystone State voted with Teddy Roosevelt and the Bull Moose, and in 1936, 1940 and 1944 when Pennsylvania went to Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Dewey Carried State

Four years ago the state went to Tom Dewey by 149,000. Tomorrow night political observers will keep their eyes on the returns from the state's largest city, Philadelphia. Many believe the Quaker City holds the key to which way the entire state will swing.

Philadelphia voters are registered better than 2 to 1 Republican over Democrats. However, since the Democrats have won the city every four years.

In an off year election last year, the Democrats captured the city administration for the first time in 69 years. This victory was credited by many to the movement of the independent voter into the Democratic column. The big question is where will these votes not strongly attached to either party go this time?

Truman W n Philly

In 1948 Philadelphia went for Harry S. Truman by a 7,000 votes. In 1936 Roosevelt took the city by more than 210,000.

Pittsburgh also, Democratic since 1932, will be another spot watched for trends.

Overshadowed to a great degree by the presidential election is the choice of four state official facing Pennsylvanians. To be elected are a U. S. senator for six years, a state auditor general for four years, a state treasurer for a four year term and a justice of the State Supreme Court to serve 21 years.

Also on the ballot Keystone State voters will find a proposed state constitutional amendment which (Please Turn to Page 6)

KENNAN HEADS BACK TO D. C. AND E. BERLIN

BREMERHAVEN, Germany (AP)—George F. Kennan, former U. S. ambassador to Soviet Russia, left Europe today to report personally to Secretary of State Dean Acheson on his difficulties with the Russian authorities.

Kennan told newsmen before boarding the liner America that he could give no information about the reasons the Soviets declared him persona non grata—personally unacceptable to them.

The Kremlin barred him from Russia in a note Oct. 3 charging he had "slandered" the Soviet Union by telling newsmen in Berlin that life for foreign diplomats in Moscow was about the same as being interned by the Nazis in Berlin during World War II.

"Funny Name Of East Berlin" Western commentators generally felt the Kremlin was only using this as an excuse to get rid of a diplomat they didn't want because he knew too much about Russia, spoke the language too well and was too practiced an observer for their taste.

The ex-ambassador is due in New York on Nov. 11. He said from there he would first take his family to their home in "a town with the funny name of East Berlin," in Pennsylvania, and then proceed to Washington to report to Acheson.

"I do not know what my next job is to be, but first I shall be at the disposal of the secretary of state," Kennan said.

Staff members of The Gettysburg Times will compile Adams County election results from every borough precinct and every township polling place as fast as they are received and the facilities of WGET will be used to broadcast these tabulations direct from the Adams County Court House.

WGET will be on the air with early returns from other states, via Associated Press, beginning at 8 p. m. The first Adams County returns are expected to be available shortly after 9 o'clock.

The radio station will remain on the air as long as returns continue to be received, both local and national, or until the results are definitely indicated.

CROWD OF 500 HEARS JUDGE AT DEDICATION

The "Senses of Value in Life" was the topic used by Judge W. C. Sheely, president judge of the Adams and Fulton County courts, in delivering the principal address at ceremonies marking dedication of the new $175,000 home for the aged of the Southern district of the Church of the Brethren Sunday at Cross Keys.

The home, located on an 18-acre tract fronting on the Lincoln highway and the Hanover-Carlisle Rd., replaces the one at Hunsdale, Cumberland County, destroyed by fire in December, 1950. At present 29 guests are in the home which has accommodations for approximately 50 persons.

Rev. Dr. A. C. Baugher, president of Elizabethtown College, said the dedication marks another forward step in Christian education in providing accommodations for the aged. He said in past years much thought has been given to accommodations for children, youths and young people but only last year the first national conference was held to give thought to the aged.

U.S. Officer Is Threatened With Imprisonment By Reds

BERLIN (AP)—An American lieutenant released after six days of Soviet captivity says the Russians threatened him with permanent imprisonment.

"They interrogated me for about four hours altogether and at one time said that I might not ever be released," Lt. William L. Stonebraker of West Decatur, Pa., told a news conference yesterday.

Stonebraker left Berlin by car on Oct. 26, took the wrong turn off the Allied autobahn in the Soviet zone and was picked up by a Russian soldier and several East German Communist policemen. After several American requests, the Soviet authorities acknowledged that Stonebraker was in custody at their Karlshorst headquarters and he finally was released Saturday morning.

The lieutenant told correspondents he did not realize he was in trouble until he encountered a road block. He concluded that he was on the wrong road and turned off of it in order to try to find his way back to Berlin.

Stonebraker said a Soviet-German road patrol stopped him and placed him under arrest. He was held in a small room at Karlshorst

TWO CRASHES OVER WEEKEND

Automobiles operated by Richard M. Sprinkle, 19, of Fairfield R. 2, and Charles Pease, 22, of Chester, N. Y., a Marine stationed at Quantico, Va., collided at 2:20 p. m. Saturday a half mile north of the Maryland-Pennsylvania state line on the Emmitsburg Rd., state police of the Gettysburg substation reported.

State police said Sprinkle was driving north and was about to make a left turn into a township road. Pease was passing Sprinkle as the latter turned, police said. No one was injured. Damage to the Sprinkle car was estimated at $100, and to the Pease car at $250.

Two cars were damaged in a rear-end collision on the Lincoln Highway four-tenths of a mile west of Gettysburg at 9:45 p. m. Saturday, according to state police.

John Philip Sterner, 26, of Hanover, told police that he stopped his car when another automobile in front of him stopped. A car operated by Howard E. Shultz, 36, of 332 S. ## Incendiary Fires Sweep 1,000 Acres In South Mountains On Saturday; Quiz Two Suspects

FIREBUG HUNT NETS BURGLARS IN MOUNTAINS

A check being made by state police in connection with the fire Saturday night in South Mountains led to the arrest of two Waynesboro R. 4 men on charges of burglary.

The State Police, engaged with other officers in checking all persons found within the fire zone because the fires were set by arsonists, came upon Floyd Kauffman, 28, Waynesboro R. 4, parked in his car near the Emerald Point Lodge, at 8:30 o'clock Saturday night.

While officers were talking to Floyd, they heard a noise of someone coming through the woods, and discovered Floyd's brother, Irvin Kauffman, 37, approaching. Irvin Kauffman, seeing the officers, dropped a drawer full of dishes he was carrying and started to run away through the woods.

Find Other Loot

Police said after Irvin was caught, a radio, garden tools, shovels and rakes were found in the car. The dishes, taken from the Emerald Point Lodge, were unbroken when Irvin let them fall, according to police.

Sgt. C. F. Tempke, at the Chambersburg state police station, said (Continued on Page 2)

Here And There News Collected At Random

Never before has a college or high school team in this area given such a stimulating and sparkling demonstration of the "never-say-die" spirit as was evidenced in Saturday's football battle on Memorial Field at the college when the Bullets spanked the Flying Dutchmen of Lebanon Valley, 34 to 25.

Hopefully outplayed, outsmarted and outscored 25 to 0 in the first 15 minutes of play, the Yovicsin-coached Bullets staged a startling comeback in the last half and climbed out of the depths of despair to earn a glorious victory.

Never before in the history of football at Gettysburg College has a team overcome such an apparently hopeless deficit of 25 points as the 1952 Bullets did Saturday. The Dutchmen did everything right and capitalized on every Bullets miscue to pile up four touchdowns and kick one goal. On the other hand everything the Bullets tried to do went astray and they seemed to be a demoralized club.

But their sensational resurgence in the last two quarters thrilled a Dad-day throng such as it has never before been thrilled in these parts and the men of G-burg rose to new heights in smothering their ancient foe by a nine-point margin.

No spectator of that contest ever saw anything like it before and no one ever expects to see it repeated . . . at least not for many moons.

CHURCH MEN'S GROUP ELECTS

Russell A. Campbell was elected president of The Men of Christ Church at a meeting Sunday evening at Christ Lutheran Church, Chambersburg St.

Other officers elected at the same time included Robert Weaver, vice president; Franklin Coffelt, secretary; and John Kaitreider, treasurer. The new officers will assume their duties at the January meeting. Harvey Smith was chairman of the nominating committee for the election.

Dr. Glenn Weiland of the Gettysburg College faculty spoke on "Fluorescence" and showed by chemical reactions colors and their practical application to research and industry.

Dr. John Zinn, president of the Men of Christ Church, announced that Rev. Herbert Schmidt will speak on the revised version of the Bible at the December 7 meetings.

The meeting followed dessert. Dr. Harold Dunkleberger led the devotions. Prayer was offered by Dr. John Aberly.

Fire, said by District Forester Thomas Norris to be "definitely of incendiary origin" destroyed more than 1,000 acres of timberland in South Mountain Saturday. The area was still smoldering today.

State Police Sergeant Jack Arms was said by Norris to be interrogating two men suspected of setting four large fires Saturday along the Newman Rd., from Mt. Newman to Mont Alto. In addition to the large fires a number of smaller blazes were caught before they burned off more than an acre, Norris said.

Approximately 500 men were engaged Saturday in combating the mountain blazes, including 150 trained forest fire fighters and about 350 volunteers.

Norris said that the number of volunteers would have been larger, with people offering their services from as far away as York, but the procedure of having trained men with at least every ten volunteers prevented using a larger number of volunteers.

Cottages Undamaged Without trained forest fire fighters accompanying the volunteers, the forester observed, there is too much danger of the volunteers being caught between back fires and the conflagration they are fighting.

Four cottages are located along the Newman Rd. but none was damaged by the fires. The closest the fire came to any building was at the Roy Wentz cabin at Laurel Lot, where the fire came within several hundred yards of the structure.

A number of members of the Gettysburg 40 and 8 went to the mountain cabin of that organization when the fire seemed headed in that direction. However the fire was halted about a half mile away.

All Under Control By 6 P.M.

The first fire was set at about 5:45 o'clock Saturday morning, Norris said. The last fire was set at about 4 o'clock that afternoon.

The last fire was brought under control about 6 o'clock Saturday night, and a crew of 30 remained on duty throughout the night to guard against the outbreak of any of the fires.

By Sunday morning the area was still smoldering but the fires seemed definitely "out" provided no winds fanned the embers.

Patrol Crews Out

Today a small crew continued to patrol the smoking area, wetting down spots that seemed likely to burst against into flame, checking stumps — which Norris said might burn underground for weeks — and continuing the patrol to prevent any further outbreak.

Norris said only a heavy rain, a cloudburst, or a three-day rainy spell would completely extinguish all of the embers rekindling in the area. There was some hope of rain this afternoon, according to weather reports, Norris said. And a brief "sprinkle" this morning helped lessen the danger of renewed fire.

Firemen Called

Gettysburg's Fire Department was called at about noon Saturday to combat the blaze. The firemen failed at first to find the fire but checked at Caledonia and were told the location of the blazes on Green Ridge. They went to the 40 and 8 camp area and spent several hours on foot assisting in combating the fire about 1½ mile from the 40 and 8. When state forest crews were able to start a backfire, thus ending the danger in that section, the local firemen returned.

Many of the volunteers who assisted in the mountain fire came from Gettysburg, when the local fire company radioed back for such assistance.

The fire covered an area between the crossing of the pipeline on the Newman Rd. south to the Sunshine Trail.

Riding Club Lauds Field Bridle Paths

Members of the recently formed Gettysburg Riding Club were high in their praise of the cleaned and repaired bridle paths on the battlefield and National Park lands at the end of their scheduled ride Sunday, in which 35 took part.

Refreshments were enjoyed at the pavilion at Round Top, and the ride continued at 2:30 o'clock back of the Roundtops, across the Emmitsburg Rd. and along W. Confederate Ave. bridle paths to Gettysburg, finishing the ride at 4 p. m.

Chinese Cut South Koreans To Bits Trying To Seize Hill

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Deadly Chinese mortar fire cut to bits and stopped cold a series of heroic South Korean attacks today on bloody Triangle Hill.

At least four times the ROKs stormed the crest. Dug-in Chinese stood them off with pin-pointed mortar fire and showers of hand grenades.

Big U.N. guns literally blew the top off Triangle and saturated Red positions in a valley to the north. The barrage disrupted the Chinese artillery batteries, but it couldn't suppress the lighter, more accurate mortars, nor rout Red troops from their holes and tunnels.

Savage fighting on the Central Front hill mass continued until dusk with the Reds holding grimly to the prized peak.

Gen. James A. Van Fleet, Eighth Army commander, said in a statement that Allied forces are "in complete control of the situation" at Triangle and nearby Sniper Ridge.

CHEST NEEDS OVER $7,000

With $7,016.48 still to be collected, the Gettysburg Community Chest today urgently appealed to all solicitors to make their reports this evening "so we can know just where we stand," as Chest officials put it.

Approximately 20 of the 80 canvassers had not made reports up to noon today, and Clark Smith, Community Chest drive chairman, was hopeful that they would report this evening at the Community Chest office in the office of Philip R. Bickle, Baltimore St.

A special "clean-up" committee is to begin work Tuesday, after determining which persons have not been called upon by the regular solicitors, either because the persons were not at home when the canvassers called or because they asked that someone "drop back later."

With $14,433.52 collected, the Chest had two-thirds of the $21,450 it needs to support six local organizations, the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Library, YWCA, Civic Nursing Association and Recreation Association.

Bullets Top Lebanon Valley 34-25 After Spotting Foe Four TDs In First Period

Roaring back for five touchdowns in the last half after giving up four touchdowns in the first period when they trailed 25-0, the Gettysburg College football team knocked Lebanon Valley from the ranks of the unbeaten 34-25 here Saturday afternoon before a Father's Day crowd of about 3,500.

The Bullets appeared hopelessly beaten after they put up a miserable opening period performance to allow the Dutchmen to capitalize on four fumbles for their tallies but made a sensational and courageous comeback.

Immediately following the opening kickoff the Bullets picked up a first down on their own 49. Tom Snukis of the visitors pounced on a fumble by Earl Yost on the Lebanon Valley 49. After two passes fell incomplete the Bullets were penalized to their 36 for rough play. Musselman lost four yards and then Lou Sorrentino connected with Giordano for a first down on the 8. The Dutchmen were set back on an off side penalty before Sorrentino passed to Musselman who was down on the 1. Sorrentino plunged over after 4:30 minutes. It kick for the point was wide.

Figskin Proves Elusive
One of the weirdest plays of the game followed a few minutes later. Berkey Ward whipped a 25-yard aerial to Joe Ujobai to put the ball on the Gettysburg 46. On the next play Bob Epplemen fumbled a pitchout. He picked it up, dropped it, repeated and then in his mad scramble booted the ball which finally landed on the Gettysburg 7 where Snukis made his second recovery for the invaders. Musselman finally went over from the 3 and Sorrentino converted.

Four plays later Snukis again stole the spotlight by recovering Ujobai's fumble on the Bullets' 17. Sorrentino then heaved a pass to Musselman for the score. Sorrentino's kick for the point was blocked by Bill Ewing who played an outstanding game for the Bullets.

A quick kick by Sorrentino late in the period pushed the Bullets back to their 8. Two plays later Hutchko pounced on a fumble by Epplemen on the Bullets' 14. On the third play Sorrentino fired a pass to Kreiser for the TD. Once again Ewing broke through to block the kick for the point.

There were few fans who believed the Bullets could overcome the horrendous first period but after the intermission it was all-Gettysburg in a courageous battle as the Dutchmen fought completely.

Megee Starts Rally
Jim Megee started the fireworks when he intercepted a Sorrentino pass and raced 35 yards for a score after 6:56 minutes. Willis Pratt, who later booted our points, kicked wide. A 19-yard punt return by Yost to the Dutchmen's 46 opened the Bullets' second TD drive. Ujobai streaked 18 and Epplemen duplicated. After a recovered fumble had lost a yard, Epplemen circled left end from the 6 to score.

The oncoming Bullets were not to be denied and two minutes later got their third TD. Ray Reider broke through to block a punt which Ronnie Miller recovered on the 4. Ujobai smashed through right tackle for the score and Pratt's conversion made it 20-25.

Miller-Reider Again
Miller and Reider teamed up again in the opening 12 seconds of the final period to put the Bullets in front. Miller blocked Sorrentino's punt and Reider scooped up the ball and raced 22 yards to put the Bullets in front. Pratt making it 27-25 with his toe.

The thoroughly routed Dutchmen gave up another touchdown midway in the period when the Bullets marched 62 yards via the ball-toting of Ujobai, Epplemen and Yocum with Yocum finally shooting through the left side of the line from the 9.

The Bullets, who have now completed their home season, will tangle with Dickinson at Carlisle on Saturday.

Lambda Chi's Win
There were plenty of added attractions prior to the game. The annual parade of floats made by fraternities, sororities and other college student organizations was held with the Lambda Chi winning top honors. Their float depicted a Dutchman ship being torpedoed by a Bullet submarine.

CHICAGO BEARS HAND '49ERS FIRST DEFEAT

NEW YORK (AP)—Before the season started, it was predicted the National Football League Conference races would be wide open affairs, with at least three teams in each division battling for honors.

Well, so far, with the season exactly half over, only one team has followed the form charts in each of its games. That's the Dallas Texans. They've dropped six straight, just as the odds said they would.

Even the high-powered San Francisco 49ers aren't safe in this uncertain league.

Bears Edge 49ers
The Chicago Bears—15-point underdogs—handed the 49ers their first setback of the season yesterday with a jolting 20-17 victory on George Blanda's 48-yard field goal in the fourth period.

San Francisco had won five straight games and was threatening to make a complete runaway with the National Conference. But now it's a close race, with the Detroit Lions (4-2) only one game behind in second place.

The Lions pulled a mild upset themselves by defeating the Cleveland Browns, 17-6, as Bobby Layne tossed two touchdown passes to end Leon Hart.

2-Way Tie

This game not only moved Detroit closer to San Francisco, but also sent the American Conference into a two-way tie for first place between Cleveland and the New York Giants.

Ending a two-game losing streak the Giants moved into a tie for the lead by walloping the Chicago Cardinals, 28-6, on two touchdown passes by Charley Conerly and two TD runs by Eddie Price.

As a result, the Giants and Browns have identical 4-2 records.

Top Game Coming
The situation should clear somewhat next week when the Giants play host to the 49ers in what figures to be one of the top games of the season.

A total of 210,941 fans turned out yesterday for a full six-game card which also saw the Los Angeles Rams break loose for the first time this season to trounce the Texans, 42-20; Pittsburgh stop a late Washington rally for a 24-23 victory, and Green Bay nip Philadelphia, 12-10.

At San Francisco, quarterback Frankie Albert of the 49ers was the "goat" of the contest which saw the Bears win out with 10 points in the fourth quarter.

Satisfying Victory
With the 49ers ahead, 17-10, and the ball on his own 31-yard line, Albert ran on a fourth down play trying to make the necessary four yards for a first down. He missed by two yards, the Bears took over and drove across for the tying touchdown.

Then, shortly after, the Bears intercepted one of Albert's passes and moved the ball to the 41-yard line, where Blanda dropped back and booted his game-winning field goal.

It was a satisfying victory for the Chicagoans, who only two weeks ago were handed their worst kicking in history by the 49ers—a resounding 40-16 thumping in Wrigley Field.

517 Yards In Six Games
Hugh McElhenny, the 49ers' brilliant rookie from the University of Washington, carried nine times for 80 yards. This increased his league lead to 17 yards in six games.

Eddie Price of the Giants, meanwhile, moved a little closer to McElhenny by rushing for 117 yards against the Cardinals for a season's total of 475 yards.

Price gained most of his yardage yesterday in one burst—a 75-yard TD run through the middle of the Cards' line. It came in the first period, and put the Giants ahead, 7-6. They piled on two more TDs in the second period and one in the fourth to avenge an earlier loss to the Chicagoans.

At Detroit, the Lions Bobby Layne had one of his good days, passing touchdown passes of nine and seven yards to Hart, a big, hard-running product of Notre Dame.

Redskins Rally Fails
Once more, Lou Groza accounted for the Browns' scoring total, kicking field goals of 12 and 41 yards. The Toe now has 12 three-pointers for the season.

Pittsburgh, in winning its second straight game, had to withstand a 16-point rally by Washington in the final period. Eddie LeBaron spark the Skins' surge, tossing touchdowns to Hugh Taylor and Charlie Justice. Ray Mathews of the Steelers raced 75 yards with a punt for a touchdown—the second week in a row he turned the trick.

Green Bay edged Philadelphia when rookie Deral Teteak blocked Adrian Burk's last-quarter punt and John Martinovic bulled nine yards into the end zone with the loose ball.

Lock Haven, DuBois Tied In West Loop

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., (AP)—Lock Haven and DuBois high schools are tied for first place today in the Class A Western Football Conference.

DuBois moved into the co-leadership by trouncing Phillipsburg, 34-13, for its fifth straight victory. It is credited with 500 points, the same as Lock Haven which did not play a league opponent last week. Lock Haven has three triumphs.

Minersville, Old Forge Lead Loops

HARRISBURG (AP)—Going into the last month of the 1952 Eastern Conference scholastic football campaign it looks like Minersville and Old Forge, leaders of their respective divisions, are the best in the conference.

In the league's weekly ratings issued yesterday Minersville held a commanding 133 point lead over second-place Mt. Carmel in the Southern Division statistics. The Miners have eight victories in a row to Mt. Carmel's seven wins and a loss. Sunbury is ranked third and Nesquehoning fourth.

Swoyersville and West Scranton are still in a position to contest Old Forge's dominance in the Northern Division. The Sailors of Swoyersville, who held Old Forge to a 14-14 tie over the week end, are rated second with a log that reads 4-0-2. West Scranton, the only major team in the entire state to have an undefeated untied string still going from the start of the 1951 campaign, is third on seven in a row.

Peru Teachers Have Best College Mark

NEW YORK (AP)—Twenty-eight college football teams remained among the country's elite today with unbeaten and untied records.

Little Peru Teachers of Nebraska boasts the best mark—eight straight triumphs without a defeat. Among the major colleges, Georgia Tech, Maryland and UCLA all have won seven while Michigan State and Southern California have captured six.

Pennsylvania schools unbeaten are Clarion, Shippensburg, Franklin and Marshall and West Chester. Villanova is unbeaten, but tied.

U. S. Team Captures 104th Cavalry Trophy

HARRISBURG, Pa., (AP)—The U. S. team at the Pennsylvania National Horse Show, headed by Arthur McCashin of Pluckemin, N. J., has ridden off with the top prize.

The team was awarded permanent possession Saturday night of the 104th Cavalry Trophy. It symbolizes winning the low-score competition for three years in a row.

Other members of the U. S. team were Mrs. Carol Durand, Kansas City, Mo., and Billy Steinkraus, Westport, Conn.

The team now goes to New York's Madison Square Garden for the opening of the National Horse Show on Tuesday.

STATE BOASTS 8 UNBEATEN SCHOOL TEAMS

By DICK HOENIG
HARRISBURG (AP)—The number of Pennsylvania's unbeaten and untied high school football powers can be counted on two hands today. There are only eight.

The second successive wholesale "knock-off-the-unbeaten's" week end saw four teams pared from the former list of a dozen elite. Three were crossed off in upsets, the fourth by a not-too-surprising tie.

Three of the eight remaining squads have only a game left on still play four.

Many western schools which opened play in mid September close out the campaign in the next two weeks. A majority of eastern and southern schools, which started a bit later, continue competition until the end of the month.

Most every one of the eight all-winning teams have a good chance to finish without a defeat or tie. Last year 13 claimed that distinction. In 1950 just seven made it.

List Of Winners
The list of major all-winners, including the number they've won and the number left to play:

West—Alliquippa 8 2; Washington 7, 1; Shade Township 7, 1; Lock Haven 6, 4; DuBois 8, 1.

East—West Scranton 7, 2; Minersville 8, 3; Upper Darby 7, 3.

Missing from the list for the first time this year are Beaver Falls and Wilkesburg of the Pittsburgh area WPAL; Greenville and Old Forge of the 53-member Eastern Conference.

Old Forge, current leader and favorite in the Eastern's Northern Division, was held to a 14-14 tie by last year's conference titlist, Swoyersville. Old Forge's Blue Devils maintained their lead on points, with a 5-0-1 log. The Sailors have tied two and won four.

Greenville Beaten
Greenville suffered its first setback after seven straight at the hands of a Brookfield, O., eleven that had lost twice in seven previous starts. The score was 14-7.

Wilkesburg, winner of four in Class AA competition of the WPAL, was eliminated from title consideration by becoming the upset victim of a Penn High team that won only one other in five conference contests.

An underdog Beaver Falls, the only other survivor in WPAL play before the week end, lost to a traditional Beaver Valley rival, Alliquippa, 28-7. The results left Alliquippa and Washington in the race to succeed last year's winner, Farrell.

A tie game between Reading and Lancaster handed the lead of the strong Central Conference to York. All three had been tied with identical records but York's victory over Harrisburg William Penn gave the Bearcats the advantage.

Hershey Wins Again
Hershey High took another step towards the championship of the Southern Conference, beating the defending champion Gettysburg Warriors, 13-0. Chambersburg held on to second with a last minute 6-0 decision over Waynesboro.

Minersville and Upper Darby did not have easy times in maintaining their records. The Miners, scored upon for the second time this season, downed upstart St. Clair, 14-7. Upper Darby survived a 57-yard wrong way run that gave a safety to the other side and defeated Lower Merion, 20-16.

Berwyn moved to the top of the Philadelphia area Ches-Mont League by knocking off Pottstown, 21-8.

Toppazzini, 22-year-old right wing of the Providence Reds, enjoyed his best season in the game last year, scoring 51 points.

Last night the handsome forward banged home three goals and assisted in two others as the Reds downed the St. Louis Flyers, 8-5, in the circuit's only game.

The triumph enabled the Reds to recapture first place from the Flyers by one point.

LETTER of APPRECIATION from a REPUBLICAN TO CONGRESSMAN LIND

October 7, 1952

Congressman James F. Lind.

Post Office Building.

York, Penna.

Dear Mr. Lind:

I wish to thank you for naming my son, Glenn, candidate for your appointment to West Point for this year. When he desired to go to the Academy he told you that we are registered Republicans and asked if that fact would be against him when he took the civil service examination which you give to all boys who desire to enter either West Point or Annapolis. At that time you assured him that politics would not enter into the appointment, but that high man on the test would be named candidate regardless what his or his family's politics were.

My son took the test and had the highest average of those boys who competed, and true to your word, you gave him the nomination.

I am taking this opportunity to tell you that since that time I have talked to Republicans and Democrats and they all say the same thing Congressman Lind is an honest man. So, for the first time I am going to vote for you and urge any one I can to do likewise, since you have proven yourself not a politician but an honest man in a political office.

If the publication of this letter can, in any way, help you in your campaign for the coming election, you have my permission to use it in any way you wish.

Sincerely yours,

R. A. ANDREWS

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

The Presidential Election: It is now clearly ascertained, that the Whig candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency have met with defeat, the extent of which was never dreamed of by their friends or foes; and that Gen. Pierce and Wm. R. King are President and Vice elect of this great Nation! It is useless to speculate as to the causes. The fact is so—and we must submit with as good a grace as we can. May a kind Providence avert the evils which we fear from the wild aggressive and progressive principles of the leaders who are to wield the destinies of the nation for four years to come!

The principal of the Academy is Mr. John H. Clarke, a graduate of Jefferson College.

A BALANCED LIFE

The rules for a happy and contented life, as well as one that demonstrates usefulness, are not complicated. They are very few and simple. Tennyson once said this: "Self-reverence, self-knowledge, self-control, these three alone lead life to sovereign power."

Can you imagine anyone taking these three fundamental principles, and applying them to every day living, being anything but a great success and a useful member of society? It seems to me that these three words can easily become the controlling factors in a balanced life. There is much in life that is complicated, but we help to make it so by refusing to adhere to what Tennyson said "lead life to sovereign power."

We live in a wonderfully constructed body. We should have self-reverence for it. We should look upon it as a temple of hope, and keep it clean, healthy and efficient. It will serve us long and happily, if we do. It is God's most perfect creation. It is full of wonders. With all we know about it, we still remain very ignorant as to its masterful construction. All the time something new is being discovered about it.

How can we judge, or find fault with others, when we know so little about ourselves? Self-knowledge is something that few ever consider as important. If we knew our own minds better, and studied our reactions to every phase of life, we would grow more considerate and more tolerant. We would be better understood by others, and more greatly loved. We live with ourselves all the time and should know more about ourselves than anyone else, but we cannot always judge others by ourselves. Each one of us is unique, but with all the characteristics of others.

And now to that other word that Tennyson emphasized—self-control. This is one of the most important rules of life. We perhaps owe more to self-control than to anything else in the building of character. It could well be called the cornerstone to a triumphant life. Without it there is little left to guide us in meeting the many problems and emergencies that face us from day to day.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Anthologies".

FRIENDSHIPS

A friend of mine likes pumpkin pie.
It's not the one I'd choose.
But that gives me no reason why
His friendship I should lose.

His necktie is a four-in-hand.
I long have worn the bow.
But still he gladly shares my hand.
And glad am I 'tis so.

The pictures of my friends I keep
Upon a nearby wall
And daily with affection deep
I greet them, one and all.

Though Catholics, Protestants and Jews,
There disputation ends,
Regardless of our varying views,
I look on them as friends.

2 Women Observe 106th Birthdays

PATERSON, N. J. (AP)—Maybe it's not so unusual after all to be 106 years ago.

At least that's how it looks in New Jersey, where two spry and chipper women celebrated their 106th birthdays yesterday.

JAMES B. DREW RESIGNS AS PA. CHIEF JUSTICE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania Supreme Court Chief Justice James B. Drew of Pittsburgh ended a 40-year judicial career by resigning yesterday.

The 75-year-old jurist stepped down two months before his 21-year term would have expired Jan. 5, 1953. He was first appointed to the bench by former Gov. Gifford Pinchot in 1913 and succeeded the late George W. Maxey of Scranton as chief justice in 1950.

He was elected to a full term the same year of his first appointment.

Declines Statement
The resignation was announced and accepted by Gov. John S. Fine who praised Drew as having been "born to the robe." Drew declined to say why he was resigning but members of his family indicated poor health and failing eyesight were part of the reason.

Drew's departure left a vacancy on the state's highest court which will be filled at tomorrow's general election. Running for the post are Judge Harry M. Montgomery of the Allegheny County Common Pleas Court, a Democrat; and Judge John C. Arnold of the State Superior Court, a Republican.

Stern Is Successor
Justice Drew was nominated by Republican, Democratic and Liberal parties when elected to the tribunal.

Succeeding Drew as chief justice is Associate Justice Horace Stern of Philadelphia, senior member of the court.

Justice Drew began his legal career as an assistant city solicitor in Pittsburgh in 1906. He served on the Allegheny County Court, Common Pleas Court, and the State Superior Court from which he was appointed to the Supreme Court.

New Parrot Tulip Blooms Excel In Dazzling Color

Parrot tulips, which may now be obtained in many named varieties, are an ancient race of garden tulips formerly sold in this country as a mixture. Their blossoms are probably the largest of all, but their petals are fringed and wrinkled, and so heavy the stems often cannot hold them erect.

It is their coloring which probably won them their name. This is described as being of "barbaric splendor," and in many blossoms it is easy to see the resemblance to the coloring of a parrot, with almost always a touch of green. Bright red, yellow and orange of greater intensity than in any other tulips are found among the parrots.

The variety Fantasy, which is a true pink, was the first named variety to achieve great popularity in this country. Fantasy is described in catalogues as a "sport" or mutant of the Darwin tulip Clara Butt, having the same lovely pink, combined with the fringed parrot petals. Many new varieties have appeared since the end of the war, which have the colors of well known standard varieties, of which they are said to be sports, or mutants. Red Champion, the parrot form of Bartington; Sunshine, a mutant of the Cottage tulip Bouton d'Or, are examples, together with others whose origin is obscure.

Parrot tulips should be planted at a focal point in the border, where their decorative form and brilliant colors will serve as a garden accent. They can be depended upon to attract the attention of all visitors. Cut blossoms are effectively used in corsage arrangements. Their petals are exceptionally heavy and last a long time in good condition.

Cultivation of Parrot tulips is in general the same as for other tulips. They are not so likely to endure without lifting for many years, and it is advisable to lift the bulbs annually, after their leaves and stems have turned yellow, and replant the larger bulbs in the garden the following fall. Small bulbs can be grown in a nursery row until they attain flowering size.

REDS HOLD YANK FOR SIX DAYS

BERLIN (AP) — An American officer who lost his way on the Autobahn through the Soviet zone was released Friday night by the Russians after six days detention. The U. S. Army announced today.

Lt. William L. Stonebraker, of West Decatur, Pa., was not mistreated or bodily searched. His vehicle and belongings were released with him.

He was set free only a few hours after Maj. Gen. Lemuel Mathewson, U. S. commandant, had vainly tried to interview responsible Soviet officials at their Karlshorst headquarters about his fate. The Army announcement quoted Stonebraker as stating that he lost his way last Sunday on the 100-mile highway to Western Germany and was picked up by Soviet military police in the East Zone. He was taken to Karlshorst where he was held until his release yesterday.

Soviet authorities repeatedly denied knowledge of Lt. Stonebraker's whereabouts during the six days he was detained.

Friday night, however, the Soviet representative at the four-power air safety center in Berlin informed a U. S. member of the provost marshal liaison section by telephone that the missing officer was in custody at Karlshorst and could be picked up there by the Americans.

SUBDUE BIG FIRE

BOSTON (AP) — One of the biggest waterfront fires in Boston's history was subdued today after a 20-hour battle which saw 80 police and firefighters felled by dense smoke or injuries.

But as a precautionary measure, streams of water still were poured on the ruins of a 1,000-foot storage warehouse on Union Wharf which collapsed into the water at midnight after being swept by flames.

THE STORY OF THE NEW YORKER PORKER

The farmer was worried about his pigs. They were skinny, yet they ate too much feed over too long a period of time.—The farmer was losing money.

Then one day the farmer stopped in to see Charlie Wolf over at Granite Station. "Charlie," he said, "I've got skinny pigs."

Then Charlie told the farmer about ESH-ELMAN and TIOGA FEEDS, and the farmer took some along.—Know what happened? One of those fool pigs got so fat, and had so much ham on the hoof, he was selected for carving in one of the finest homes in New York, and that's the story of the New Yorker Porker.

Also to be chosen are 30 members of Congress, 25 state senators and 208 state assemblymen.

Candidates of both parties have mentioned three factors that can turn the tables. The first is the woman vote. Much of the record registration is credited as being due to women enrollments. There are a number of reasons advanced for this aroused interest in politics by the fair sex.

Both parties have issued the usual optimistic predictions. Maurice Splain Jr., Democratic state committee chairman, believes his party will win by 125,000 to 150,000. State Sen. M. Harvey Taylor is just as sure of the result for the Republicans and has predicted 60 of the 67 counties will be for the GOP.

"They never had it so good!"

THE order is, "Forward march"—and off they go, feet sucking against the Korean mud, every bone crying, "I'm tired!"

The order is flop and eat—and they flop and try to eat, no matter how little they like the food.

The order is, "Take hill number 63!"—and they fight forward, not ready for death, but expecting it with every splatter of bullets.

Then, in the quiet moments, one soldier will turn to another and half grin and say, "You never had it so good."

A joke—a classic Army joke—but these days it has a real bitter note to it. Because at the same time everyone is wondering and saying:

"Did it have to come to this?"

"Couldn't the shooting have been stopped before it began?"

"What's the matter with our foreign policy?"

"Why didn't the Administration see this coming?"

"Must we keep paying for their mistakes?"

"WHAT? We've never had it so good? COME INTO MY FOXHOLE AND SAY THAT!"

All right—the damage is done—and we all know what has been badly begun must be well ended.

BUT—shall we forget or forgive those who blundered? Will you? Do you DARE? Will you trust America's future foreign policy to those responsible for Korea? Is this official fumbling what you want for America? You know it isn't!

Not if you value the lives of your sons. Not if you value your own life and welfare and that of your family. Not if you value the peace and prosperity of America.

No—you will want to clean house. You will want to sweep out of power and into the ash can the Administration that brought your country to this. You will run, not walk, to the polls. You will vote eagerly, glad that you can make a change. You will

OPTIMISM HIGH IN STEVENSON'S CAMP AT CLIMAX

By DON WHITEHEAD
SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (P) — Optimism outweighed all the doubts in Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson's camp today as he carefully penned his last—and perhaps most dramatic—appeal to the voters before tomorrow's presidential election.

This speech will be delivered tonight from Chicago in a national radio-television program featuring the Democratic candidate, President Truman, Vice President Barkley and Sen. John J. Sparkman of Alabama, the Democratic vice presidential nominee.

Stevenson worked in his office at the Executive Mansion and even his own lieutenants said they didn't know what he was going to say.

Predict 400
The candidate was due to leave here by plane late today for Chicago. He will spend the night there, cast his vote tomorrow in the little town of Half Day, Ill., and then return to Springfield.

Wilson Wyatt, Stevenson's campaign manager, predicted last night the Democratic nominee will win at least 400 electoral votes and carry at least 32 of the 48 states. It takes 266 electoral votes to elect.

Privately, there were others in the headquarters who did not share the Wyatt optimism—and they saw a much closer race even though most of them were confident of a victory.

Finished Fast
The general feeling was Stevenson had come up fast in the last few days, had closed the gap and even overtaken Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower with this last-minute spurt.

Stevenson gave another indication last night that he regards the Korean War as one of the major issues. He struck out at Eisenhower's proposals on Korea as carrying the risk of a third world war—and designed to "separate us from our allies."

In a statement, he disclosed that a group of 15 war correspondents in Korea had sent telegrams to him and to Eisenhower warning against any withdrawal of American troops from the front-line fighting.

No Comment From Ike
He quoted this group as saying, "Gen. Van Fleet himself has told us repeatedly that as long as the Chinese are in the war, the South Koreans are incapable of manning the front lines alone."

In New York, Eisenhower had no comment. His press secretary, James C. Hagerty, said:

"Since when are 15 out of 167 war correspondents military experts?"

(In Tokyo, the 15 correspondents who signed the statement emphasized they spoke as individuals and not as representatives of their organizations.)

Mrs. Ives, Adlai's Sister, Not Nervous

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. (P) — A slim, aristocratic woman who may be the next first lady of the land toasted her stockings feet before her hearth fire today and vowed she isn't nervous over the election.

She is Mrs. Elizabeth Stevenson Ives, known as "Buffy" to her brother, Adlai Stevenson, and to her family and friends.

Mrs. Ives has served as Stevenson's official hostess at the Governor's Mansion in Springfield since Ellen Borden Stevenson divorced him in Reno in 1949.

She would move with Stevenson to the White House to continue as his hostess should the Democratic nominee win.

The U. S. Census Bureau says that about 12½ million people live in the New York urban area in New York State and New Jersey.

English Fish Story Cut Down To Size

EASTBOURNE, England (P) — One fish story—about the man who flung a boat anchor into the sea and hooked a two-ton whale—has been cut down to size.

First, an expert from the British Museum came along and said the monster Vivian Gell and his friends dragged in wasn't a whale at all. It was a 14-foot basking shark.

Then, before Gell could collect 10 pounds ($28) that an animal dealer offered for the catch, hundreds of sightseers hacked the fish to pieces yesterday and carried it away for dog and cat food.

Boy's Appendix Is Removed By Mistake

LIVERPOOL, England (P) — Roy Thompson, 10, went into a hospital here to have a metal splinter taken from his hand.

David Thompson, also 10, went to the same hospital to have his appendix out.

The hospital staff is trying to figure out how it happened that the appendix that came out belonged to Roy.

When they discovered the mistake, the horrified surgeons quickly wheeled David into the operating theater and whipped out the right appendix.

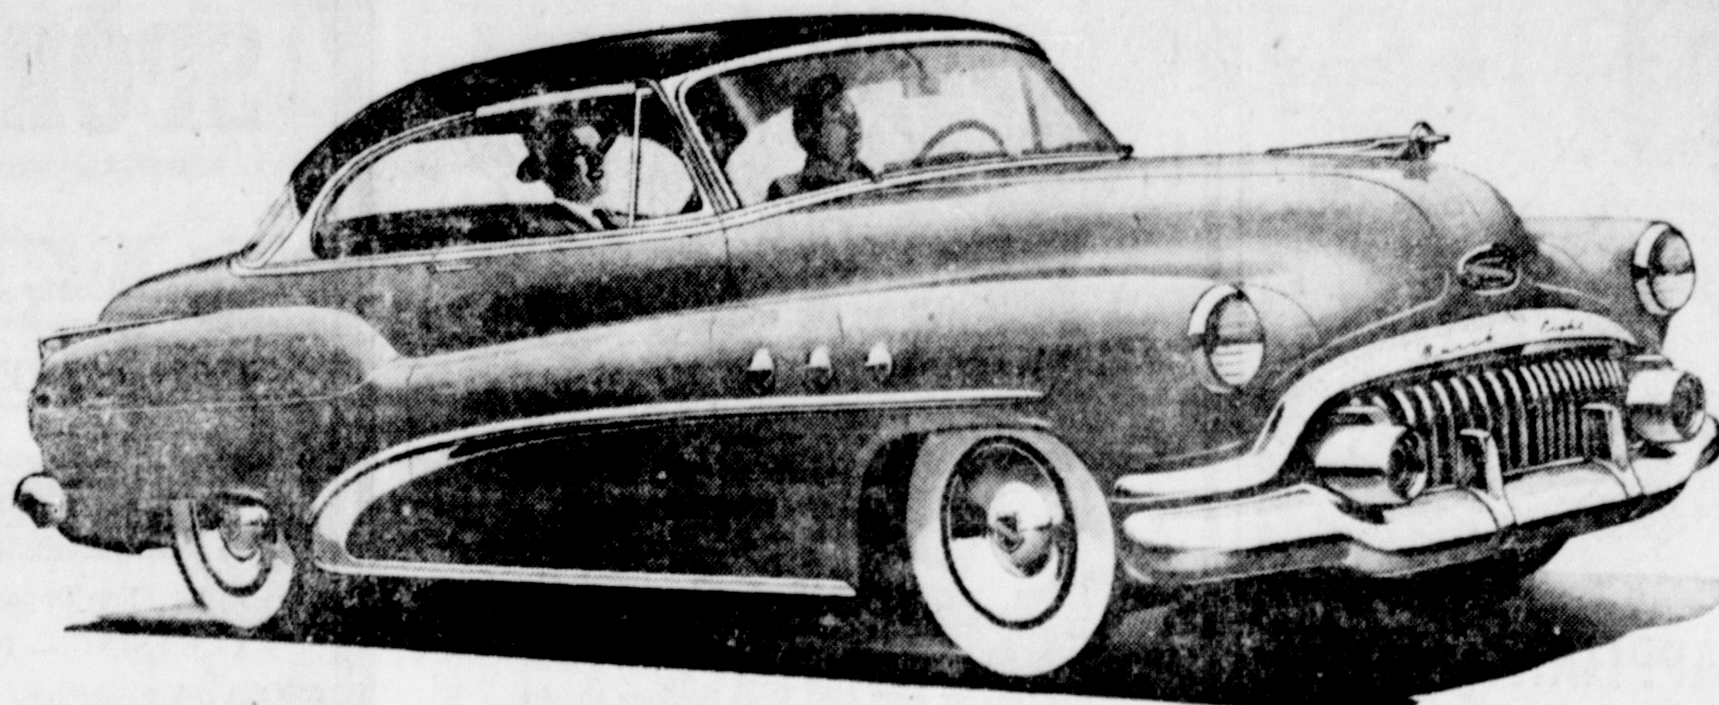

MEXICO CITY (P) — An argument into a knife fight in which one man in a bar yesterday over who would win the U. S. elections exploded seriously cut.

20 MORE DIE

WASHINGTON (P) — The Defense

Department today identified 258 casualties of the Korean War. The new list (No. 684) included 20 killed in action, 197 wounded, 15 injured in accidents and 26 missing.

There Can Be NO Misunderstandings About EISENHOWER

He Is Running For President, BECAUSE . . .

1. So many Americans wanted him to.
2. His desire to work for peace in the job where most can be done.
3. His conviction that "neither the present administration nor any candidate committed to it can do the job either at home or abroad that America will be called upon to do in the next four years."

GENERAL EISENHOWER COULD PROBABLY HAVE HAD THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION WITHOUT RAISING A FINGER. THOSE DEMOCRATS WHO HAVE VILIFIED HIM DURING THE CAMPAIGN ARE THE VERY ONES WHO HOPED TO HAVE HIM AS THEIR OWN CANDIDATE . . . PROVIDED, OF COURSE, THAT HE WOULD RUN AS A SUPPORTER OF TRUMAN AND TRUMAN POLICIES.

EISENHOWER IS RUNNING FOR THE PRESIDENCY AS HIS OWN MAN, UNCOMMITTED AND UNOBLIGATED.

Eisenhower Is a Man of Principle

He is convinced that most Americans desire an end to one-party rule in the Federal government.

He will bring fresh intelligence in dealing with our national problems.

He will reintroduce honor and honesty into public life.

He is a world leader and is working zealously for world peace.

He is the true friend of the working man and the farmer.

He believes in equality of opportunity for all persons regardless of creed, color or national origin.

He believes in safeguarding the rights of the individual from government oppression and regimentation.

He will aggressively combat Communist attempts at infiltration in and outside of government.

He will bring new vision into the conduct of our foreign affairs without resignation or despair in the face of Soviet threat.

GENERAL EISENHOWER REMAINS

"What I have tried to be all my life: Humble in the sight of God, strong in the knowledge of the Greatness of America, firm in a belief in honor and principles, and secure in a conscience which has not been compromised."

Among many world figures, Bernard Baruch, who has never made a political statement, has placed on record the esteem in which he holds General Eisenhower, and knows of . . .

" . . . the high motives which actuated him in all fields of human relationships."

He had spoken of

"his character, his ability, his abhorrence of cant and hypocrisy, and of his devotion to his soldiers and our beloved country. I still think it of him."

THINKING AMERICANS WILL AGREE A MAN OF EISENHOWER'S PRINCIPLES IS JUST WHAT THE COUNTRY NEEDS IN THE WHITE HOUSE IN THE CRITICAL DAYS AHEAD.

FOR HONOR AND HONESTY IN GOVERNMENT . . . FOR THE SALVATION OF AMERICA . . . FOR EQUAL OPPORTUNITY AND HONEST CONSIDERATION OF ALL PEOPLE AND TO ZEALOUS LEADERSHIP FOR WORLD PEACE . . .

TWO MORE OHIO CONVICTS SHOT IN 60-HOUR RIOT

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—State highway patrolmen shot and killed a rioting convict at Ohio Penitentiary today during a steady shotgun barrage that wounded three other convicts and held 1,600 rebellious prisoners at bay in four battered cell-blocks.

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Warden Ralph W. Alvis reported two more Ohio penitentiary convicts were shot by guards today in another chapter of a 60-hour, million-dollar riot. About 1,600 convicts still are "out of control" in four cell-blocks.

The shootings brought to three the number of convicts shot by guards in less than 24 hours. Warden Alvis identified the wounded today as:

George Grubb, 32, of Cleveland, serving a 4-62 years for forgery, burglary and grand larceny; buckshot wound in right shoulder and arm.

Edna Cayson, 27, of Warren, serving 1-15 years for burglary; buckshot wounds right shoulder.

Grubb was shot at 3 a. m. and Cayson at 5 a. m. in separate disturbances.

Shot By Patrolmen

Alvis said state highway patrolmen did the shooting. He said the two were trying to reach a stairway leading from their corridor.

Alvis said patrolmen are shooting over the heads of the rioting convicts at intervals in an attempt to bring them under control.

This is the only way to stop the prisoners from storming the massed patrolmen, said Alvis. There are no locks between the patrolmen and prisoners.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY SURE, SAYS TRUMAN

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN (AP)—President Truman is now convinced the Democrats will win next Tuesday's election, a top aide said today, while one of his chief political advisers forecast a win by a minimum score of 294 to 237 electoral votes.

The adviser, Frank McKinney, former Democratic national chairman, who rode the Truman campaign train this week, based his prediction on figures which would give the Republicans some states where he said he thinks Stevenson has a good chance of coming through.

The White House aide said Truman has not told his staff what states he thinks Stevenson will carry.

Truman Still Talking
They would allow the Republicans states like California, Maryland, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania and others "where we've certainly got bright prospects," McKinney said.

Meanwhile, the President devoted his final day of campaigning to whistle-stop talks in Indiana and Illinois en route to St. Louis to end up his campaign with a major prepared speech.

He did so after blasting Dwight D. Eisenhower before a cheering crowd of 3,000 in Cincinnati's Music Hall for "impugning the character and patriotism of his former associates." He also called GOP vice presidential nominee Richard M. Nixon a man with "an unsavory financial record."

Laughs And Cheers

It was a Democratic rally and the Democrats cheered and applauded his "Give 'em hell" barrage and roared with laughter at his sallies at the Republicans for what he called their "soap-selling drive."

He scored the GOP presidential nominee for his use of a personal letter written by Gen. James A. Van Fleet recommending the number of South Korean divisions be doubled.

"The candidate wants to make you think this government is against training more Koreans," Truman said, an edge in his voice. "That's not so at all."

He said Eisenhower is "trying to promise" the voters he can bring U. S. troops back from Korea "sooner than the other good generals."

Tito Accuses USSR Of Promoting War

ZAGREB, Yugoslavia (AP)—In fiery defiance of Russian threats of domination, Premier Marshal Tito accused the Soviet Union today of promoting a third world war and pledged Yugoslavia's co-operation with the West in preserving peace.

He laid before the sixth Congress of the Yugoslav Communist Party, which opened yesterday, a 40,000-word review of his struggle to maintain his country's freedom against heavy military and economic odds since he broke with the Kremlin-led Cominform in 1948.

Test Oak Wilt Spread By Insects

HARRISBURG (AP)—A new theory that oak wilt disease can be spread by insects is being tested by the State Department of Agriculture.

The department announced Saturday that its investigators had formulated the theory after inspecting a number of infected trees in Bedford County, the worst hit county in Pennsylvania.

A number of trees that had been blazed for a logging train were

MORE DENIALS IN SNYDER TAX "COVERUP" CASE

WASHINGTON (AP)—A crossfire of denials and reports built up today after a Republican congressman accused Secretary of the Treasury Snyder and other top Democrats of trying to hide a "highly suspicious" connection with a multi-million-dollar tax case.

The counterblasts called the charge a political "last-minute dirty deal."

Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin, a Republican member of the House ways and means subcommittee, which has spotlighted a series of revenue bureau scandals, contended in a statement yesterday:

1. That the Truman administration is attempting a "gross cover-up" of revenue bureau documents relating to a movie industry tax settlement.

Sharply Denied

2. That Revenue Commissioner John B. Dunlap's role in the case disqualifies him from his job and "strongly indicates the much heralded cleanup of the Bureau of Internal Revenue is a sham and deceit."

3. That "the real reason and the only reason why the . . . documents have not long since been made available to the subcommittee is because they will show the involvement of Mr. Snyder and other prominent Democrats in highly suspicious activities in this and other tax cases."

Snyder and Dunlap sharply denied the accusations. Both were in Seattle for ceremonies installing new tax officials under the bureau's new reorganization program.

found killed by oak wilt while other trees nearby were unaffected. The department believes the blazing marks may have left the trees open to infection by insects.

A department survey, authorized by the 1951 State Legislature, has uncovered about 1,200 trees killed by oak wilt in Pennsylvania.

Navy Pilot Is Killed In Crash

TOWANDA, Pa. (AP)—A Navy pilot was killed Friday night when his plane crashed into a field at East Smithfield, Bradford County, 16 miles west of here.

Identification of the flier was withheld pending notification of next of kin by Naval authorities.

Two eye witnesses said the crash occurred in a heavy fog.

State police said the men dragged the pilot's body from the wreckage. The engine of the plane was hurled about 100 yards from the fuselage. It caught fire but was extinguished by firemen.

Lt. Commander Richard G. Harden, commander of a Naval unit at Elmira, N. Y., said the plane was on a routine training flight from Norfolk, Va., to Buffalo, N. Y.

1 KILLED IN 4 VEHICLE CRASH

ELIZABETH, N. J. (AP)—Two trucks and four cars piled up on the fog-shrouded New Jersey Turnpike here early today, killing a 22-year-old sailor and injuring three others.

Turnpike police said the crashes happened at about 12:30 a. m. After the initial pileup of several of the vehicles, an oncoming trailer truck managed to stop without ramming hard into the cars, police said.

But then an auto carrying the sailors, all of them assigned to the U. S. S. Yellystone, smashed into the rear of the truck.

Dead was Albert Joseph Valley, 22, Providence, R. I. The injured seamen were Francis Coneeny, 21, Carneys Point, N. J.; Harry Stecher, 22, Atlantic City, N. J., and Francis Dougherty, 21, Wilmington, Del.

The sailors were brought to St. James Hospital, Newark, where Dougherty's condition was reported as critical. The other two were not seriously hurt, a hospital spokesman said.

Also injured but not seriously, was Leonard Barcus, 40, of Tuckahoe, N. Y., in one of the vehicles at the start of the pileup.

The driver of the truck into which the sailors' car smashed was identified by police as Sidney Blum, Franklinville, N. J. He was taking chickens to a Newark market. Police said Blum would be arraigned on a charge of causing death by auto.

and family, Christ Reformed Church parsonage, East King St., included: The Rev. and Mrs. Joseph M. Newgard of Wilton Junction, Iowa, and Miss Edna E. Risser, Campbelltown, Pa. Visitors on Saturday at the Koons home were Mr. and Mrs. Guernie E. Zuver, Harry H. Zuver and Mrs. Susan E. Witmer, all of Campbelltown.

On Sunday morning, the Rev. Fr. Edward J. Shanahan distributed the report cards for the first time this fall to the children of St. Aloysius Parochial School.

Edward G. Loeffel, Crouse Park, received the award at the Appreciation Day program on Saturday evening. Mr. Loeffel received ten per cent of the total jackpot or $41.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Scholl and son, Aberdeen, Md., visited over the weekend with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Scholl, South Queen St., and Mrs. Scholl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theron W. Spangler, Patrick Ave.

James M. Motter, a senior student at Shippensburg State Teachers' College, spent the weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Motter, near town. Motter was recently selected as one of the outstanding students at Shippensburg and will be named in the 1953 Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

PRISON TACTICS KEPT SECRET

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Ohio Penitentiary officials today kept secret their tactics to regain the upper hand over 1,600 convicts they haven't been able to control completely since Friday.

Warden Ralph W. Alvis said he's afraid the information would get back to the unruly prisoners through their prison radios.

Guards and state highway patrolmen kept watch on four cell blocks after a guard shot a prisoner who tried to escape yesterday.

The warden said the situation has been tense ever since the Halloween riots and fires that resulted in hundreds of thousands of dollars in damage to the 117-year-old prison near downtown Columbus.

The shooting was the first violence since Friday night. Alvis said Everett Hodge, 28, Cincinnati, was shot by a guard as he tried to force his way to a heavy screen with an iron bar. The wound was minor.

EISENHOWER TO END CAMPAIGN IN BOSTON TONIGHT

By REILMAN MORIN

EN ROUTE TO BOSTON WITH EISENHOWER (AP)—Gen Dwight D. Eisenhower comes to the end of the campaign trail tonight, making his last great bid for the most powerful elective office in the world, the presidency of the United States.

He chose Boston, a city rich in the traditions of early America, as the site for his final effort.

The approach of zero-hour found the Korean War—and the problem of war and survival generally—as the over-riding issue of the campaign.

Eisenhower has gone on record with the belief that South Korean soldiers can be trained in sufficient numbers to permit American divisions to be withdrawn to rear areas, and held in reserve. He says he would push such a program if he is elected.

Implementing this, the general promised to go to Korea himself, if he becomes president, to study the problem at first hand.

At the same time, he has fired some of his heaviest broadsides at President Truman's government, charging it with responsibility for conditions that permitted the Korean fighting to start, and with having failed to build a South Korean Army capable of taking over its front lines in the 29 months since the war started.

De-Classifies Report

At the 11th hour, Truman joined the fray on this same critical point. He de-classified a Department of Defense document of September, 1947. Signed by the late Secretary of Defense James Forrestal, it quoted a report from the Joint Chiefs of Staff and said they considered that from the standpoint of military security, the U. S. had "little interest" in maintaining its troops and bases in Korea.

Eisenhower was Army chief of staff at the time and the President has claimed that he bears part of the responsibility for the decision to pull American forces off the peninsula.

Eisenhower's answer has been that the political decision to withdraw came two years after the report of the joint chiefs, namely in 1949.

To Broadcast Speech

Eisenhower prepared to motorcade through the necklace of cities ringing Boston during the day. At 10 p.m. (

By ED CORRIGAN
NEW YORK (AP) — As the politicians would say, the time has come, ladies and gentlemen, to start looking ahead.

Five football coaches of the country's major teams are doing just that today. They're looking ahead to the remainder of their schedules and hoping they can remain unbeaten and untied. Michigan State, Maryland, Georgia Tech, Southern California and UCLA are the teams still in the select circle.

One thing is certain and that is, barring a tie, either UCLA's Red Sanders or Southern Cal's Jesse Hill is going to be disappointed before the season ends. Their teams meet head on two weeks from Saturday and on the result probably will go the Pacific Coast Conference title and a bid to the Rose Bowl.

Bowl Picture Cloudy
Neither has a particularly tough task this week. UCLA meets Oregon State and Southern Cal goes against Stanford, the defending conference champion.

As for Biggie Munn and his Michigan State outfit, the No. 1 team in the weekly Associated Press poll, the Spartans' next three opponents — Indiana, Notre Dame and Marquette — are thinking up ways and means of keeping the score down.

As for the bowls, the picture still is cloudy and probably will be for at least another week.

Michigan Upset
The Rose Bowl probably will have UCLA or Southern California as the host. The Big Ten representative is far from being determined. Purdue is the current leader. Michigan also has a good chance of making it, despite being upset, 22-13, by Illinois Saturday.

The Southwest Conference champion acts as host in the Cotton Bowl. The best that can be said is that Texas, on the basis of its 31-14 triumph over Southern Methodist, is in the favorite's role.

Except for South Carolina's well-turned 21-14 victory over Virginia, most of Saturday's games followed the expected script. Michigan State nipped Purdue, 14-7; Maryland breezed past Boston University, 34-7; Oklahoma shut out Iowa State, 41-0; Georgia Tech defeated Duke, 28-7; Kansas stopped Kansas State, 26-6; UCLA defeated California, 28-7; Tennessee swept past North Carolina, 41-14; Notre Dame halted Navy, 17-6, and Penn State nipped Penn, 14-7.

Other State Scores
In other Keystone State college grid action, the Pittsburgh Panthers walloped Indiana 28-7 and Bucknell, whose 17-game winning string was ended last week, started a new skein with a 28-6 triumph over Lehigh.

Shippensburg Teachers, ranked as one of the nation's top defensive teams among small colleges, won their sixth game, a 49-7 walloping of Millersville. In another teachers game, Clarion recorded its sixth victory, blanking California, 34-0.

Skipping over the rest: Gettysburg whipped Lebanon Valley, 34-23, Temple trampled over Rutgers

MANIAC FACES MANY CHARGES

BARTOW, Fla. (AP) — Multiple charges of armed robbery, kidnapping and auto theft today were filed against a self-styled maniac and his convict pal whose wild dash for freedom ended at a crossroads barricade 20 miles north of Jacksonville.

James Francis Hill, 31, former inmate of an insane asylum, was held on three charges of armed robbery, three counts of kidnapping, three of auto theft and one of jail delivery. A federal detainer also was filed against him.

James Douglas, the convict, faced two counts of kidnapping, three of armed robbery, three of auto theft and one of escape.

It was Hill who freed Douglas and three other convicts at a road rang near here Thursday. Hill and Douglas, who were inmates together at Florida State Prison at Raiford, kidnapped eight persons and changed cars five times in their daring bid to get out of Florida.

Two of Hill's alleged companions, Virgil Lemay, 15, and Charles Edward Hopkins, 24, were arrested several days ago by FBI agents.

Niagara Falls is divided by an island. The height of the falls on one side of the island is 155 feet and on the other 165 feet.
